

BRITISH SOCIETY OF TOXICOLOGICAL PATHOLOGY

Continuing Education Symposium 9: Cardiovascular System

Cambridge

Tuesday 18th – Thursday 20th July 2017

17.5 hours of educational activity will be recorded on Attendance Certificates

Continuing Education Symposium Objective:

The aim of the Continuing Education Symposium is to provide an interactive environment to enhance your knowledge in the field of toxicological, discovery, clinical, experimental or veterinary pathology. The series of Continuing Education Symposiums are designed to refresh participants' knowledge and understanding of core principles, as well as discuss any important recent advances.

Continuing Education Symposium Description:

The British Society of Toxicological Pathology offers Continuing Education Symposiums focusing on specific organ systems. This Continuing Education Symposium will provide an in-depth coverage of cardiovascular system pathology. This is an intermediate level symposium covering INHAND nomenclature for the cardiovascular system; evaluation of the cardiovascular system and species variation; drug induced vasculitis; cardiovascular pathobiology and possible mechanisms; safety pharmacology, biomarkers, clinical pathology and haematological evaluation of the cardiovascular. There will also be interactive sessions including workshops and case presentations on cardiovascular system problems which will form an important part of the symposium.

This symposium is the event for toxicological and discovery pathologists (and other scientists working with animal models), clinical pathologists and toxicologists as well as non-clinical regulatory scientists to learn about recent scientific advances. As well as providing CPD for experienced members of the profession, the symposium is open to students/residents and those at the start of their pathology career.

The format will include presentations, case histories and active participation of delegates. The Continuing Education Symposium will be of 3 days duration and the programme will be arranged such that each individual day can be attended as stand-alone CPD if desired.

Who should attend:

The Continuing Education Symposium programme is intended for toxicological and discovery pathologists (and other scientists working with animal models), clinical pathologists and toxicologists as well as non-clinical regulatory scientists. The aim is to make the content relevant to both those who have been working for a number of years and who feel they can benefit from an update (as well as contributing their experience to the group discussions that will take place) and those who are in the early stages of their careers.

Continuing Education Symposium Location:

The Symposium will be held in Cambridge, detailed travel and accommodation information will be available to those who register for this event.

Continuing Professional Development:

17.5 hours of educational activity will be recorded on Attendance Certificates. For those delegates who wish to self accredit for CPD, proof of attendance should be retained for this purpose.

Continuing Education Symposium Registration:

Registration is limited; to ensure attendance on the Symposium, early registration is encouraged.
