

At the forthcoming joined ESTP/BSTP Congress in Surrey, United Kingdom, September 22-25, 2015 the International Academy of Toxicologic Pathology (IATP) will present the Charles Capen Trainee Award, which will be offered to a young pathology, toxicology or toxicologic pathology trainee who will attend the ESTP 2015 Congress.

A trainee is defined as an individual working on an academic degree, in a training or residency program, or in a postdoctoral training position and have demonstrated achievements in the field of toxicologic pathology including but not limited to:

- Research contributing to public safety as it relates to the adverse health effects of xenobiotics;
- Establishing test methods and standards that enhance the field of toxicologic pathology; and/or
- Developing new or novel uses of toxicologic pathology in safety research.

The IATP will present the recipient with an award certificate and a voucher to obtain a book of their choosing from a list of classic toxicologic pathology books recommended by the toxicologic pathology experts of the IATP.

Young colleagues interested in applying for the Charles Capen Trainee Award are kindly invited contact the ESTP 2015 Scientific Organizing Committee and submit their application to estpcongress@gmail.com.

Required application material includes:

- the CV of the applicant
- submission of a Poster presentation or Case presentation at the ESTP 2015 Congress (not mandatory)

Deadline for application is September 4th, 2015

We look forward to receiving your application and to meeting you in Surrey in September.

ESTP/BSTP 2015 Scientific Organizing Committee and ESTP Executive Committee